Reflection
What is your child's attendance rate?

When Do Absences Become a Problem?

CHRONIC ABSENCE 18 or more days
WARNING SIGNS 10 to 17 days
SATISFACTORY 9 or fewer absences

Behavior

168

Incident reports (IRs) were given to students during the first quarter of the 24-25 school year to help them reflect on and learn appropriate behavior and interactions in school.

Frequent reasons for IRs: Physical aggression, disruption, disrespect

37

Office Disciplinary Referrals (ODRs) were given to students when an administrator deemed the incident report a violation of the student code of conduct or was a repetitive incident

Frequent reasons for ODRs: Physical aggression/attack

Reflection
Did your child earn Falcon of the Week this Year?

607

Students recognized as Falcons of the Week so far this year!

Reflection
Did your child receive an IR or ODR? Did they learn from the situation?

By reinforcing positive behaviors, teachers spend more time teaching, as class disruptions, office referrals, and suspensions are reduced.
