You'll see the "Story" of our classroom: photos and videos of big moments and important updates

Today we wrote about what makes us happy! First, we brainstormed. Then we drew. Lastly, we wrote our words by listening carefully and writing the sounds we hear. I am so proud of their letter knowledge!

Have your child draw a picture and tell you all about it. Encourage them to label the picture by saying the word slowly and writing the sounds they hear. Don't worry about formal spelling, getting them to take the risk to write on their own is the goa!!

Tim has been participating a lot recently! We're really excited about it 4

Seen at 3:35 PM

So great to hear that - we'll keep encouraging him at home!
